

System V Release 4 (SVR4)

Developed jointly by AT&T and Sun Microsystems

Combines features from SVR3, 4.3BSD, Microsoft Xenix System V, and SunOS

New features in the release include:

- real-time processing support
- process scheduling classes
- dynamically allocated data structures
- virtual memory management
- virtual file system
- preemptive kernel